I permit the above named child(ren) to travel to away fixtures on transport organised by Lurgan RF&CC. I permit the above named child(ren) to take part in rugby practices and matches under the supervision of a coach. These may include tag or full contact tackling, scrums and lineouts.

I confirm that I will inform my child's coach of any injury that my child has suffered that may prevent them from participating in rugby and I particularly understand the need to make the coaches aware of concussion injuries.

I permit photographs to be taken of my child(ren) playing rugby. These may be used in the local press and in Lurgan Tigers publications and on the website. I also permit my child(ren)s name(s) to be attached to the relevant photograph.

Fees; First Child £60.00, additional children £55.00 each. Cheques payable to Lurgan RF&CC. For children registered with the Lurgan Youth cricket section in 2017 please deduct £5.00 per child (ie £55.00 and £50.00)

It is necessary for Lurgan RF&CC ("the Club") to collect and record certain personal data relating to each member, including the member's name, address, telephone number and date of birth. Data about each member is provided as required to the IRFU, the relevant Branch and other third parties to facilitate any services provided relating to the Irish Rugby Football Union's Clubhouse Website (the "Website") and published on the Website. The system will be used for management and administration purposes only. Any party receiving the information shall not be authorised to use it for commercial purposes or release it to any party without prior approval.

Code of Conduct for Players

- 1 Play for enjoyment and become part of the rugby family.
- 2 Respect the "Game of Rugby" and play within the Laws of the Game.
- 3 Accept the referee's decision and let your captain or coach ask any relevant questions.
- 4 Play with control. Do not lose your temper.
- 5 Always do your best and be committed to the game, your team and your club.
- 6 Be a "good sport". Applaud all good play whether by your team or the opposition.
- 7 Respect your opponent. Treat all players as you would like to be treated. Do not "bully" or take advantage of any player. Always respect team mates and opponents irrespective of gender, race or religion
- 8 Rugby is a team sport and make sure you co-operate with your coach; team mates and members of your club.
- 9 Remember that the goals of the game are to have fun, improve your skills and feel good.
- 10 At the end of the match thank your opponents and the referee for the match.
- 11 Always remember that you owe a duty of care to your opponents.
Tackle hard but fairly, do not intend to hurt your opponent.
- 12 Winning and losing is part of sport: Win with humility - lose with dignity.
- 13 As part of the team it is important that you attend training regularly and listen to your coach and help your team.
- 14 As a team sport it is important to understand that all members are important to the team!
- 15 Remember you are representing your team, club, family and the Game of Rugby.

Code of Conduct for Parents

- 1 Remember, young people play rugby for their enjoyment, not only yours.
- 2 Encourage your child always to play by the Laws of the Game.
- 3 Teach young children that honest endeavour is as important as winning, so that the result of each game is accepted without disappointment.
- 4 Help young people to work towards skill improvement and good sportsmanship.
- 5 Set a good example by applauding good play on both sides.
- 6 Never ridicule, humiliate or shout at young players for making a mistake or losing a match.
- 7 Do not place emphasis on winning at all costs.
- 8 Do not force an unwilling child to participate in the playing of rugby. If the child is to play, he/she will do so in good time through your encouragement.
- 9 Support all efforts to remove verbal & physical abuse from rugby.
- 10 As a spectator do not use profane language or harass referees, coaches or players.
- 11 Do not publicly question the referee's judgement and never their honesty.
- 12 Recognise the value and importance of volunteer referees and coaches.
- 13 Identify and acknowledge the good qualities of the Game of Rugby and uphold these values.
- 14 Remember you and your child's contribution to the Game of Rugby is very important to the IRFU and be proud of your contribution.
- 15 Understand the value of team sport and its importance.
- 16 Always respect our own players and spectators and those of visiting teams irrespective of gender, race or religion

We require to register all players with the IRFU to do this we require to provide proof of every child's age please can you provide a copy of each child's birth certificate or passport.
